

BIO OF ELI FRIEDMAN

Eli Friedman Government Relations Associate

Eli Friedman rejoined the HJM team as a Government Relations Associate in December 2020, after previously serving as a summer intern in 2019. In his current role, Friedman will serve HJM clients in a variety of tasks including legislative and issue tracking, political and fundraising updates, and other communications. Prior to working with HJM, Friedman interned in Governor Martin O'Malley's legislative office, where he helped to successfully advocate on major legislative priorities including the death penalty repeal, marriage equality, and the expansion alternative energy resources. Eli has volunteered on several campaigns, including the reelection of former House Speaker Michael Busch and the state referendum for marriage equality.

College:
University of Maryland, College Park (B.A. 2020)